While you're probably still struggling with the pronunciation of the band's name you might find yourself hit straight in the face by the first chords of their music... What a beautiful noise!

This is straight-forward.
This is nice and noisy.
This is furious racket making at it's best!

Punk Rock hasn't felt as fresh as this for a long time.

For those who agree that toe tapping just isn't quite enough these boys from Augsburg, Germany will blow your head off at no time.

Hörstreich have been touring for over twenty years. With gigs all over Germany and Europe (GB, CZ, FR) they have made noise in many places and got people jumping a whole lot of times.

Their 8th LP "Legs without Brains" was produced by Tom Körbler who managed to pack all this crazy energy into one explosive album. Take care - this might go bang!
